

Jordan S. Martin

Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW)
Associate Director of Clinical Services

Jordan Martin is no stranger to RIL. Previously he served in a variety of roles from 2017-2022 with the organization. He returns to us now to oversee our Mental Health Program.

Along with being a LCSW, Jordan is certified in various other mental health sub-specialties including:

- Clinical Trauma – Complex (CCTP-II)
- Trauma-focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Wellness Recovery Action Plans
- Mental Health First Aid (Youth & Adult)

He is also trained and provided supervision in Trauma Systems Therapy and is nationally certified in Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy.

His career has spanned a diverse range of responsibilities, from local internships, to:

- Case Manager
- Adult Protective Services Investigator/Supervisor
- Jersey Assistance for Community Caregiving Manager
- Personal Assistance Service Program Coordinator
- Statewide Respite Care Coordinator
- Family Wellness Therapist
- Clinical Supervisor
- Social Work Care Manager

Jordan earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Wilmington University in 2016, followed by his Master of Social Work from Rutgers University in 2022. He is from New Jersey but spent three years in Colorado, before coming back to RIL. When he is not working you can find Jordan with his cats, Jack and Liam, and dog, Miles.
